Hospitality and Gifts Policy

1. What is the main purpose of the policy?

To set out the legal framework and CBH's approach on the provision of, and acceptance/ refusal of gifts and hospitality.

2. What main areas or activities does it cover?

Provision/ acceptance and refusal/ of gifts and hospitality

3. Are there changes to an existing policy being considered in this assessment? If so what are they?

No

4. Who are the main audience, users or customers who will be affected by the policy?

- Staff & Board members
- Customers
- Public

5. What outcomes do you want to achieve from the policy?

Decisions and CBH approach in this area need to withstand internal and external scrutiny.

Policy must reflect a culture of transparency and probity

Approach must be clear and practicable

6. Are other service areas or partner agencies involved in delivery? If so, please give details below:

CBC

7. Are you aware of any relevant information, data, surveys or consultations which help us to assess the likely or actual impact of the policy upon customers or staff?

No

8. The 'general duty' states that we must have "due regard" to the need to:

- (a) eliminate unlawful discrimination, harassment and victimisation
- (b) advance equality of opportunity between people who share a 'protected characteristic'<sup>1</sup> and those who do not<sup>2</sup>
- (c) foster good relations between people who share a protected characteristic and those who do not<sup>3</sup>

Not all policies help us to meet the 'general duty', but most do.

Where applicable, explain how this policy helps us to meet the 'general duty':

The policy helps us to 'eliminate unlawful discrimination, harassment and victimisation' in the following way(s):

- It is not believed that the policy specifically helps CBH meet this aim of the general duty.

The policy helps us to 'advance equality of opportunity...' in the following way(s):

<sup>1</sup> The Equality Act's 'protected characteristics' include age, disability, gender reassignment, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief and sex and sexual orientation. It also covers marriage and civil partnerships, but not for all aspects of the duty.

<sup>2</sup> This involves having due regard, in particular, to the need to: (a) remove or minimise disadvantages suffered by persons who share a protected characteristic that are connected to that characteristic; (b) take steps to meet the needs of persons who share a relevant protected characteristic that are different from the needs of persons who do not share it, and (c) encourage persons who share a relevant protected characteristic to participate in public life or in any other activity in which participation by such persons is disproportionately low.

<sup>3</sup> This involves having due regard, in particular, to the need to (a) tackle prejudice, and (b) promote understanding.

- It is not believed that the policy specifically helps CBH meets this aim of the general duty.

The policy helps us to ‘foster good relations...’ in the following way(s):

- It is not believed that the policy specifically helps CBH meets this aim of the general duty.

9. This section helps us to identify any disproportionate impacts. Please indicate in the table below whether the policy is likely to particularly benefit or disadvantage any of the ‘protected characteristics’.

Remember to include reference to any relevant consultation, data or information.

‘Protected characteristic’ group		Positive Impact	Explain how it could particularly benefit the group	Negative Impact	Explain how it could particularly disadvantage the group
Age	Older people (60+)		None identified		None identified
	Younger people (17-25) and children (0-16)
Disability	Physical		None identified		None identified

10. If you have identified any negative impacts (above) how can they be minimised or removed?

Language	English not first language	X	The policy is in English
----------	----------------------------	---	--------------------------

Should anyone require the policy in a language other than English, this can be requested, and staff will assist that person to access suitable translation facilities.

<sup>5</sup> The protected characteristic of gender reassignment is defined by the Equality Act 2010 as “a person proposing to undergo, is undergoing or has undergone a process (or part of a process) for the purpose of reassigning the person's sex by changing physiological or other attributes of sex.” This is a personal process that may involve medical interventions such as counselling, psychotherapy, hormone therapy or surgery, but does not have to.

<sup>6</sup> It is generally held that people who are transgender disguise their features or clothing to resemble their preferred sex, whereas people who are transsexual wish to change their body to completely resemble their preferred sex.

11. Could the policy discriminate<sup>7</sup> against any 'protected characteristic', either directly or indirectly<sup>8</sup>? No

<sup>7</sup> The Council has a general duty to 'eliminate unlawful discrimination, harassment and victimisation'. Direct discrimination occurs when a person is treated less favourably than another in a comparable situation because of their 'protected characteristic' whether on grounds of age, disability, pregnancy and maternity, ethnicity; religion or belief; sex (gender), sexual orientation, or marriage and civil partnership. Indirect discrimination occurs when an apparently neutral provision or practice would nevertheless disadvantage people on the grounds of their 'protected characteristic'.

<sup>8</sup> If you answer 'yes' to question 11 (above) you will need to complete this section and go on to complete Section 2 in order to conduct a full Equality Impact Assessment.
