The Cannons

Colchester Borough Homes Independent living with support

The Cannons, 25 Layer Rd, Colchester, CO2 7HT.

Extra Care Housing offers independent living with personalised support when you need it.

There is a range of self-contained, unfurnished properties allowing you to add your own style, with walk in showers and kitchenettes.

Located in beautiful grounds with a range of communal facilities.

This type of accommodation offers the same security and peace of mind as sheltered housing with the additional benefit of extra care and support being available from an onsite care team.

There is a communal dining area where external caterers offer a daily meal.

All applicants for extra care must have an active Gateway to Home choice application and have had a social care assessment to ensure they meet the eligibility criteria for The Cannons.

The onsite care team and caterers are two external companies based at The Cannons. Payment for these services is made directly to the suppliers and is at an additional charge to the rent.
